

This Friday:
Regular Meeting

Greeters:
Exberger and Gibson

Editor:
John Guisto

And the game begins... Roger almost gets control as Joe Pileggi starts the Pledge then Ed Lacina does the invocation.

Roger calls for visiting Rotarians, there's a bunch, then guests... none and finally Guest of Rotary... again none.

Barney Jenott is present and looking chipper, welcome back Barney!

Announcements:

Roger Bier brings thanks from Judy, thanks for the calls and cards. Judy is still under the care of a doctor but she is getting stronger every day and should be back on even keel in a couple of months. Hang in there Judy, the club has you in their thoughts.

Paul Consentino expressed his thanks to the club for all the support he received since Karen's passing.

Joanne Bengiveno reminds us of the Mike Wiles Scholarship Fund Bowlathon. The event is on November 22, a Saturday. Get your pledges and get ready to bowl!

Announcements continued...

The 1999/2000 AVRC
President Elect is Paul Venezia.

Perfect Attendance

Roger Hassler awarded a 10 year perfect attendance pin to Paul Heaney.

Special Dates

The Prez remembers the October
events:

Birthdays for Odette Leone,
Muzzy Mazzocco, Diane Malloy,
Carol Remy, Norma Uenaka,
Walt D'Ardenne and John Gilleland.

Anniversaries for Max & Emme
Carl, Charlie & Odette Leone and Diane & Tom Malloy.

And now the November events start... A $5 birthday announcement for Roger Bier and a $5 Anniversary announcement for Fred and Dee Eberle.
Fred wasn't present. Bring money to the next meeting Fred.

Tax Time...

The tax collector, Craig Opera, draws first blood from Paul Heaney.

You went to Oregon and forgot to send the Prez a card? Yes. What did you do? I went fishing but bought a new fifth wheel trailer instead. $20 for the trailer and forgetting the card.

Bruce Curley, you have a new toy?
Yes, a twin engine 13 foot long jet boat sporting almost 200 horse power. It's called a Ski Doo. $20 bucks should Doo it Bruce.

Diane Malloy, your picture is in the paper again? Yes, but it's the same paper I was in last week and I paid for it already! Well $10 and this time take it home with you.

Vern Kuhn and (?) showed up at noon for a recent night meeting, $10 guys and wake up!

Hersh Higgins complained to the Tax extractor that Bruce Bondelie took advantage of him with a wager on the Nebraska/Oklahoma game. Bruce didn't disclose the odds to him when they made the bet. Oklahoma lost 69 to zip!
Hersh volunteered to donate $1 per point to the AVRC Foundation if Bruce paid a $5 tax, the amount of his winnings. They both paid.

John Baker, was that a special entree you had at last weeks meeting?
Nobody else had it. You made the Tax Collector hungry, $10.

It's "Get the Editor" time again.
Walt D'Ardenne misspelled a name, miss-stated the Senior Christmas party date and made a comment about Turkish Lira. These are taxing times
Walt, $10.

A personalized letter opener was found. It had John Remy's name on it and touted the SJ South Rotary Club logo. $10 for creating a false impression John.

A Presidential imposed fine...
Craig Oprea, fined $20 for advertising by distributing flyers, promoting the Vietnam War Memorial display, at his place of work.

Speaker

Leroy Stark
introduced Mona Kellem Gilmer from

Communications Plus. Mona shared secretes to successful networking with people in different environments and situations.

Coming Attractions

11/14, Ed Lacina presents Stewart
Slater, Director of American Music Theater.

11/21, Walt and Peggy D'Ardenne, "A Whale of a Tale".

Interact

11/19/97 Mazzocco, McCarthy, McIntosh
12/03/97 Niimoto, O'Neill, Oprea

Editors

11/14/97 John Guisto
11/21/97 Walt D'Ardenne
11/28/97 Hersh Higgins

It's closer than you think!